

#1 New York Times Bestselling author and star of MTV's The Buried Life, Ben Nemtin's story begins 10 years ago. Fed up with the monotony of day-to-day life in college, Ben and his friends set out on a two-week road trip with a camera and a borrowed RV to complete a list of "100 things to do before you die." For each item they accomplished on their list, they helped a complete stranger cross something off their own list. Since then, Ben and his friends have crossed off nearly all 100 list items and they have encouraged millions to believe that anyone can do anything.

Ben's bucket list quest has brought him from the White House to play basketball with President Obama (#95) to Oprah's couch (#61) to having a beer with Prince Harry in London (#82). Currently, Ben is crossing off '#91: Make a Movie', with The Buried Life feature documentary film set to release in 2018.

Testimonials

“ Ben did an excellent job of sharing his story in a light and lively way. We have a group that varies in age from 20 to 80 and all were entertained. I have been going to this meeting for over 25 years and the audience participation was far and above greater than any I have ever seen.” ”

- Chairman of the Board - Arkansas Hospital Association.

“ Ben's presentation was, hands-down, the highlight of our Annual Meeting! He was entertaining and humorous, and his message of challenging attendees to identify their goals, as well as how to work together to achieve those goals, was motivational and thought-provoking. In sharing his story, Ben encouraged leaders to follow their dreams and make a difference in the world not only for themselves but, more importantly, for others. As an event planner for nearly 30 years, Ben's story was one of the most inspiring I've heard!” ”

- Director of Corporate Events, West Virginia Hospital Association.
